Corey Marks, poet

The Lawrence Clayton Poets & Writers Speaker Series

presented by

The McIntyre-West Endowment of the Hardin-Simmons University Academic Foundation

Monday, March 7, 2016
The Multi-Purpose Room
Johnson Building
Hardin-Simmons University

3:30-4:30 p.m. Question & Answer
7:30-8:30 p.m. Poetry Reading
8:30 p.m. Reception and Book Signing

The public is cordially invited.
All sessions are free.

Selected Biography

Corey Marks grew up in rural Michigan and received a B. A. in English from Kalamazoo College. His Master Of Fine Arts in Creative Writing (poetry) is from Warren Wilson College, and his Ph.D. in Creative Writing and Literature is from the University of Houston. He is Distinguished Teaching Professor and Director of Creative Writing at the University of North Texas.

His awards include a fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Natalie Ornish Prize from the Texas Institute Of Letters, and the Bernard F. Conners Prize from The Paris Review.

Books

Renunciation
(poetry)
University of Illinois Press, 2000
Selected by poet Philip Levine as a 1999 National Poetry Series Competition Winner.

The Radio Tree
(poetry)
New Issues Poetry & Prose, Western Michigan University, 2012
Winner of the Green Rose Prize from New Issues Press, 2011

For further information, contact Dr. Robert A. Fink, Department of English, Hardin-Simmons University (325) 670-1214.