Notes from Vivian

As a resident of Talkeetna, Alaska, I've had the opportunity and absolute pleasure to consider Denali as my backyard and have done most of these excursions in some iteration or another. My personal favorite has been the Denali Glacier Landing Flight, a trip that I take almost every summer (the picture on the first page shows one of the two landing spots on Denali - Ruth Gorge). Chances of seeing Denali's peak is almost guaranteed from the air.

A new-to-Orbridge tour, the Midnight Sun ATV Adventure, is one I am most excited about. ATV-ing in the dusky alpenglow is something I do as much as I can, and to be able to offer this to guests and share this experience is so exciting. Truly a real Alaskan treat- even when the weather is a little gray - even if it makes for a long day, there is really nothing that can compare.
